

Mrs. Myslik's K-1 News and Notes

November 6, 2023

This week we are learning how God moves in mysterious ways to perform his wonders. At times we have troubles in our lives and do not understand why God would allow such things to happen. However, we trust that God will work all things out for our eternal good. Our first lesson this week is Jacob Brings His Family to Egypt. Our second lesson is Baby Moses. In both of these lessons we see that God carries out his plan for our lives, sometimes in ways we don't expect, but always for our eternal good!

This week Wednesday we will be recording the children of our school singing the song "Magnificent, Marvelous, Matchless Love" so we can show it during the following worship service (November 12). Please be sure to send your child to school wearing this year's blue school theme t-shirt. We will be recording on Wednesday, November 8.

Report cards will be passed out on Wednesday, November 8 and Thursday, November 9 during our Parent/Teacher Consultation. I will be meeting with parents Wednesday (3:00-6:00p.m.) and Thursday (3:00-7:00p.m.) You can sign up for a meeting time using Sign-up Genius on our school's website. This is a quick (15-20 minute) meeting for parents and teachers to get together and discuss each child's progress so far. Children are not expected to come along for this visit, and if work schedules make it difficult for both parents to come, that is very understandable...one parent is fine. I look forward to seeing you!

Kindergarten – In Kindergarten reading we are finishing up the lessons about the letter Ss and will be starting our new unit which is all about Superkid Lily and the letter Ll. Lily likes playing with her lion dolls and pretending with them.

Our first graders will start Unit 4 in reading on Wednesday this week. This new unit will focus on words that end with "-er" and "-ed." Due to the short school weeks at the end of October and early November, our next spelling test will be tomorrow - Tuesday, November 7. On Wednesday students will get the new word list and will be tested on November 15. Once we get past Thanksgiving we will go back to our regular schedule of Monday new word list with a Friday test.

Don't forget, there is No School on Friday.

I'm looking forward to seeing you this week at our Parent visits!
